Press Release

AJ Access Platforms are pleased to confirm the appointments of Neil Wilkinson and Mike Palmer to further enhance the company's sales profile within the UK and end user market sectors.

Neil has worked as a sales manager within the end user sector over the last 5 years and will be focusing on the sales of both new and pre-owned equipment. He will also be looking after a number of key accounts within the Powered Access Industry.

After beginning his career in construction hire nearly 10 years ago, Mike joins AJ Access Platforms, bringing a wealth of experience in the Hire Sector with him. He will be responsible for accounts and prospects in Wales and the Midlands.

"We are confident that the addition of Neil and Mike to our Sales Team will enable us to further strengthen and expand our customer base in the UK." Says Director, Nick Cragg. "The expertise and experience they bring, combined with our unrivalled stock availability updated daily through our new website, will help us to reinforce our place as one of the UK's largest independent access sales companies."
